During these moments you need to be held, recognized, celebrated and given experienced guidance. In these times when you really need to feel connected and to be heard, you may instead feel isolated, or met with indifference.

The 8 Shields Institute is so grateful to host a weekend with Jon Young and Paul Raphael, two leaders in cultural repair, and respected mentors in communities all over the world.

At this gathering, Jon & Paul will share vital teachings that, for many generations, have been lost to so many of us in the western world.

Please join us and discover a whole new understanding of the void in life, and how to create deeply connected and meaningful experiences at those times when you need it most.

An 8 Shields Event
